Packaging and Delivery

1. Be sure to affix a label (below) to the back(s) of your work.
2. If a DC 201 designated driver is transporting your work, please make a "bag." Create a loose-fitting protective bag from bubble wrap, foam, or any cushioned product for your framed art that can be easily reused. It must fit LOOSELY so that your frame can slide easily in and out.
3. Put your name and the title of your artwork in LARGE print that is clearly visible on the OUTSIDE of your bag, so we can easily match it up to your art when the show ends.
4. If you are delivering your own artwork to Keizer and picking it up when the show closes, package it as you wish, unwrap it at the show, take your packaging home with you, and bring it back on pickup day. Note: If there is any chance you will want someone else to pick up your artwork, you should make a bag as directed above, and advise and leave your packaging with the show manager at the show.

Designated Drivers

If you are planning to transport your own artwork and are willing to be a designated driver (you must commit to both drop-off and pick-up dates), please contact Ellen White (ellen@kittycentral.us or 503-423-7415). Sorry, DC 201 does not reimburse drivers for gas or mileage.

*NOTE: All reasonable care will be taken with transported artwork; however, designated drivers are not liable for accidental damage. If you ask a designated driver to transport your work, please offer to contribute toward gas expenses, if you can.
